15 September 2011

HOCHTIEF Facility Management UK Ltd. are pleased to announce the appointment of Simon Harris as their new Managing Director.

Simon brings a wealth of experience to the UK, having recently spent 3 years working within the International Division of HOCHTIEF Solutions AG Services Segment as Regional Support Director for the EMEA region.

Simon has been with the company for over five and half years working with both the Irish and UK businesses before going over to Headquarters in Essen, Germany to take up his EMEA focussed role.

Simon has an abundance of experience within the technical built environment and has a broad range of industrial experience gained within the UK, Europe, USA and as far afield as Japan.

He will be a great asset to the business going forward in achieving growth and strengthening our operational processes.
